ELISABETH NEHRING

works as journalist, dance critic and cultural policy moderator. Since 2019, Dr Elisabeth Nehring has held the position of dance expert for Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. In 2018, she moderated and steered the Round Table Dance in Berlin, a participatory process with broad involvement of cultural policy, administration and dance experts to develop a concept for dance in Berlin. Since 1999 she has worked as a freelance journalist and critic for various radio stations (including Deutschlandfunk Kultur, WDR, etc.) as well as (supra)regional print and online media, reporting on important world premieres in Germany as well as international festivals and producing radio features on cultural and political topics. Elisabeth Nehring moderates public talks and is and has been a member of several juries.

ANNE NGUYEN

learned a number of martial arts and discovered the world of breakdance and battling. Since 2005, Anne Nguyen has dedicated herself to sublimating hip-hop dance and its rebellious culture and injecting it with a certain amount of mystery. She combines a raw, virtuoso gestural vocabulary with a geometrical, pure, deconstructed choreographic expression that exalts the power of abstraction. Parallel to her choreographic works, Anne Nguyen writes, directs and choreographies theatre-dance pieces where h-hop dance becomes the support for a wider reflection upon our society: , She draws from the observation of gestures, danced as well as ordinary, individual as well as collective, to turn hip-hop dance and popular cultures into a support for a reflection on tradition, on social markers, on diversity, on cultural appropriation and on mechanisms of cultural domination.

MING POON

is a Berlin-based choreographer who began his career as a professional dancer in 1993 and started to develop his choreographic practice in 2010. He creates choreographic interventions, where spectators are invited to exercise their agency to create change. His works are interactive and collaborative in design. They usually take the form of collaborative performances, public interventions and one-to-one encounters. He works with vulnerability, care, peripherality and failure as performance strategy. His practice is influenced by the Buddhist concept of interdependence and care, Judith Butler's resistance in vulnerability, Augusto Boal's theater of the oppressed and Nicolas Bourriaud's micro-utopias.
