TAGUNGSMAPPE

CREATIVE THINK TANK

Tanz – Mittel der Ermächtigung, Strategie und Motor für Krisenbewältigung?

16. Mai 2023, 10:00 Uhr bis 17.30 Uhr (MESZ)
auf der online Plattform ZOOM in englischer Lautsprache

IM MITTELPUNKT

des eintägigen CREATIVE THINK TANK steht der Austausch, die Reflexion von Fragen an die eigene Arbeit und der Wissenstransfer. Ausgehend von kurzen Impulsen aus unterschiedlicher künstlerischer Praxis diskutieren Gäste und Teilnehmende Strategien, Methoden, Ästhetiken, Ziele und bestärkende Potenziale des Tanzes für Künstler*innen und Publikum.

Die Zeit der Covidpandemie konfrontierte uns mit massiven Einschränkungen, Sorgen und vor allem mit der Verletzbarkeit unserer Körper. Sie machte aber auch unsere Abhängigkeit von sozialen und globalen Zusammenhängen (schmerhaft) erfahrbar. Kaum scheint diese Krise überwunden, dominieren nun der Angriffskrieg auf die Ukraine, Krisenherde im globalen Süden und die Auswirkungen der Klima- und Energiekrise unsere politischen und gesellschaftlichen Diskurse. Vor diesem Hintergrund fragen wir inwiefern Tanz – als körperliche Praxis, als ästhetisches Erlebnis sowie als gesellschaftliches Ereignis der Versammlung – dazu beitragen kann, mit Erfahrungen von Gewalt umzugehen und Gegenwart neu zu imaginieren sowie Gemeinschaften und Solidarität zu stärken.

DER CREATIVE THINK TANK IST IN DREI THEMATISCHE BLÖCKE AUFGETEILT.

Diese können unabhängig voneinander besucht werden, jedoch freuen wir uns über Teilnehmende, die den gesamten Zeitraum des THINK TANK mit uns verbringen und Gedanken über den Tag verfolgen, verknüpfen und neu verfassen.

PROGRAMM (MESZ)

ZUR EINSTIMMUNG: FRAGMENTS OF RESILIENCE

Dokumentation von Anna Semenova, Polen, Ukraine | 2022 | 25 Min., Untertitel: Englisch.

Zur Einstimmung auf den CREATIVE THINK TANK empfehlen wir FRAGMENTS OF RESILIENCE von Anna Semenova. Der Film zeigt den Entstehungsprozess und die persönlichen Geschichten der Menschen hinter EVERY MINUTE MOTHERLAND - einer Performance der Maciej Kuźmiński Company, die im August 2022 uraufgeführt wurde. Stück und Film wurden als Reaktion auf den Krieg von einem Team aus polnischen und ukrainischen Künstler*innen geschaffen.

Vom 15. – 17.5.2023 auf der Website von TANZ Bremen, www.tanz-bremen.com, verfügbar.

PROGRAMM

Ausgehend von verschiedenen Impulsen und anhand von Beispielen aus der künstlerischen Praxis diskutieren die Teilnehmenden Strategien, Methoden, Ästhetiken und Potenziale des Tanzes für Künstler*innen und Publikum.

Inwieweit kann zeitgenössischer Tanz zu Resilienz und Widerständigkeit von Individuen, Gruppen und gar von Gesellschaften beitragen? Welche Rolle nimmt dabei der Tanz als ästhetische Ausdrucksform und als geteilte Praxis ein? Auf welche Weise kann Tanz Solidarität erzeugen und ein kollektives, gleichzeitiges Erleben von Verletzbarkeit und Stärke ermöglichen? Wo endet die Suche nach einer ästhetischen Formensprache, und wo beginnt eine soziale Praxis?

9:50 EINLASS

10:00 BEGRÜSSUNG und Infos zum Ablauf der Veranstaltung
Sabine Gehm // künstlerische Leiterin TANZ Bremen
Sarah Israel // Dramaturgin I Deutschland

Anschließend GET TOGETHER by SPEED-NETWORKING

10:30 THEMENBLOCK 1 – TANZ UND RESILIENZ

- Welche Möglichkeiten bietet Tanz, zur Widerständigkeit und Resilienz von Individuen, Gruppen oder gar Gesellschaften beizutragen?
- Welche Rolle nimmt dabei der Tanz als ästhetische Ausdrucksform und als geteilte Praxis ein?
- Wo endet die Suche nach einer ästhetischen Formensprache und beginnt eine soziale oder therapeutische Praxis?

IMPULSE

Dr. Isabella Helmreich //

Psychologische Psychotherapeutin und Expertin für Gesundheitsprävention mit Schwerpunkt Resilienzförderung, Leibniz-Institut für Resilienzforschung I Deutschland

RESILIENZ – EIN MODEWORT ODER EINE UNIVERSALANTWORT?

Zum Begriff der Resilienz und der Frage nach menschlicher Widerstandsfähigkeit

Serge Aimé Coulibaly //

Choreograf, Faso Danse Théâtre I Burkina Faso/Belgien

Zum Verständnis von Resilienz und Empowerment anhand von VEILLÉE AU SAHEL, einer Produktion mit nicht-professionellen Tänzer*innen, die sich mit Auswirkungen der anhaltenden Bedrohung durch terroristische Gewalt und politische Instabilität in Burkina Faso beschäftigt.

Viktor Ruban //

Choreograf, (Kultur)aktivist I Ukraine

Zu den Möglichkeiten von Choreograf*innen und Tänzer*innen unter Kriegsbedingungen weiterzuarbeiten und die Entwicklung von Tools aus der Praxis des zeitgenössischen Tanzes, die Menschen mit traumatischen Kriegserfahrungen helfen sollen, mit dem Erlebten umzugehen.

Anne Nguyen //

Choreografin, Tänzerin I Frankreich

Zum Verständnis von Resilienz in der Arbeit mit verschiedenen internationalen urbanen Straßenkulturen. Welche Ausdrucksformen bringen Arbeiten vor dem Hintergrund hervor, dass für zahlreiche Gemeinschaften der Tanz ein Mittel ist, um mit den gewalttätigen Folgen des Kolonialismus und anderen Formen der Unterdrückung in einer globalisierten Welt umzugehen.

YOLANDA GUTIÉRREZ

born in Mexico, is a Hamburg-based choreographer, video artist, curator and producer. Her projects have been shown at international festivals. She works with international artists* from Europe, Asia, Latin America, the USA and Africa. Since 2017 she has regularly choreographed decolonizing audio-walks with dance interventions, performed under the titles URBAN BODIES PROJECT and DECOLONYCITES. In 2021 she founded her artistic platform SHAPE THE FUTURE. One focus of her work is on the question of what political role the body takes on in art, and how an artistic movement can become a political one.

More information

is a licensed psychological psychotherapist (behavioral therapy) and an expert in health prevention, especially with regard to the development and implementation of interventions to promote resilience. Together with Dr. Donya Gilan, she heads the "Resilience and Society" department of the Leibniz Institute for Resilience Research in Mainz.

GALIT LISS

is an independent choreographer, artistic director and founder of the GILA PROJECT - an artistic space for mature women. She's a member of the Israeli Choreographers Association. In 2022 Galit received the prestigious Rosenblum Prize for the Performing Arts of the Tel Aviv-Yafo Municipality. As part of her artistic and social agenda, she creates with elderly women who are non-dancers. Her performances focus on the physiological aesthetics of the mature body in contemporary dance and have been performed at festivals in Israel and abroad. Galit Liss is the creator and artistic director of the school of "Gila workshops of movement and stage art for mature women." There she teaches the GILA practice - her unique methodology for working with the elderly body that she has been developing for the last 15 years.

More information

is a professional dancer, choreographer and a teacher of contact improvisation and contemporary dance. She has been teaching many workshops all over the world and is the founder of Motion Mode Dance Theatre (MMDT) and the creator of numerous dance projects. 28 years of dance experience (since the early age of 4). She received medical education in body therapy and sociology at Dnipropetrovsk National University and trained at the Physical Theatre in Intragna (Switzerland) with Thomas Mettler. Now Tamara is a member of the Ukrainian Contemporary Dance Platform Association and of the OFFTANZ Tirol Association (Austria). She is the founder of "Solo & CI Tirol Festival" and "West meets East."

More Information

ELISABETH NEHRING

works as journalist, dance critic and cultural policy moderator. Since 2019, Dr Elisabeth Nehring has held the position of dance expert for Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. In 2018, she moderated and steered the Round Table Dance in Berlin, a participatory process with broad involvement of cultural policy, administration and dance experts to develop a concept for dance in Berlin. Since 1999 she has worked as a freelance journalist and critic for various radio stations (including Deutschlandfunk Kultur, WDR, etc.) as well as (supra)regional print and online media, reporting on important world premieres in Germany as well as international festivals and producing radio features on cultural and political topics. Elisabeth Nehring moderates public talks and is and has been a member of several juries.

ANNE NGUYEN

learned a number of martial arts and discovered the world of breakdance and battling. Since 2005, Anne Nguyen has dedicated herself to sublimating hip-hop dance and its rebellious culture and injecting it with a certain amount of mystery. She combines a raw, virtuoso gestural vocabulary with a geometrical, pure, destructured choreographic expression that exalts the power of abstraction. Parallel to her choreographic works, Anne Nguyen writes, directs and choreographies theatre-dance pieces where hip-hop dance becomes the support for a wider reflection upon our society: She draws from the observation of gestures, danced as well as ordinary, individual as well as collective, to turn hip-hop dance and popular cultures into a support for a reflection on tradition, on social markers, on diversity, on cultural appropriation and on mechanisms of cultural domination.

MING POON

is a Berlin-based choreographer who began his career as a professional dancer in 1993 and started to develop his choreographic practice in 2010. He creates choreographic interventions, where spectators are invited to exercise their agency to create change. His works are interactive and collaborative in design. They usually take the form of collaborative performances, public interventions and one-to-one encounters. He works with vulnerability, care, peripherality and failure as performance strategy. His practice is influenced by the Buddhist concept of interdependence and care, Judith Butler's resistance in vulnerability, Augusto Boal's theater of the oppressed and Nicolas Bourriaud's micro-utopias.

More information

HAYMICH OLIVIER

is a Namibian dancer and choreographer. He graduated from the University of Cape Town with a Diploma in Dance Teaching and an Honors Degree in Choreography. Since then Haymich has prepared numerous choreographic works for the National Theatre of Namibia, Bank Windhoek Arts Festival and College of The Arts (Windhoek, Namibia). In 2010, along with fellow Namibian dancers, he started the First Rain Dance Theatre (FRDT), while fully operational FRDT did community outreach work by training young dancers and employing them on a freelance basis. He is currently employed as a dance lecturer at the College of the Arts in Windhoek, Namibia, where he teaches Contemporary Dance, Choreography and Dance Teaching Method. Haymich is interested in the body's response to trauma, in ways to develop movement dynamics that are not based on traditional technique training as well as in the movement language developed by older, more mature dancing bodies.

ANTON OVCHINNIKOV

works as choreographer, performer, composer, lecturer, and organizer of the annual international dance festival Zelyonka Space UP in Kyiv. Since 2008 he has been the artistic director of the Black O!Range dance production company. In 2015 he co-founded the All-Ukrainian Association "Contemporary Dance Platform." Since then he has been the president of the institution. The main objectives of the Association are to support young Ukrainian choreographers, integrate contemporary dance into the modern cultural life of Ukraine and establish the national center of contemporary dance. From 2016-2021 Anton Ovchinnikov presented a few solo performances and created five multidisciplinary projects. Since 2018 Anton Ovchinnikov has been a member of the expert panel of the Ukrainian Cultural Foundation. Since February 2022 the UA Contemporary Dance Platform has been managing two international projects supporting Ukrainian choreographers and their work during wartime.
